

*Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.*

Please take this time to center yourself as we listen to this morning's prelude.

Prelude

† Call to Worship (inspired by Matthew and Luke's Gospels)

~ by Katherine Hawker

One: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.

Many: Mystery beyond our knowing,
close to us as our breathing,
in humble awe we pray.

One: Your Kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven

Many: We pray for your vision of justice and mercy to be made real in our world even now.

One: Give us today our daily bread.

Many: We pray for your vision of enough;
enough sustenance, enough warmth,
enough healing for all of your children.

One: Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Many: We pray for the grace to let go of that which is death dealing as we embrace your vision for life, that we might follow you safely through the obstacle course.

One: For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours. Now and forever.

Many: Giving thanks for Your presence that defies definition in this life and beyond. Amen.

*Parents/Guardians: Children are invited to attend a special summer program, "Treasure Cove."
They can leave now to find the Palm Tree in Fellowship Hall and meet their teachers this week, Connie Bottoni and Beth Fulkerson.*

† Opening Hymn

Here I Am, Lord

Chalice Hymnal, No. 452

Please join us in singing verses 1 and 3.

Thanks Kathy Schaefer for your hymn suggestion – keep the suggestions coming friends!

I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in deepest sin
My hand will save.
I, who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

[Chorus]

Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go, Lord, if you lead me.
I will hold your people in my heart

I, the Lord of wind and flame,
I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them,
my hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide
'til their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my life to them.
Whom shall I send? (To Chorus)

A Garden Kind of Prayer

To Our God who pulls on gloves for gardening and bends deep to see our needs:
You know that we need your care and nurture. Fertilize our soil and our souls.
Plant seeds of wisdom, inspiration, and discernment deep within us. Prune us back today for more abundance tomorrow; and refresh us with living water that pours down like rain. Amen.

Please join us in singing verses 1 and 2.

I come to the garden alone,
while the dew is still on the roses;
and the voice I hear, falling on my ear,
the Son of God discloses.

Refrain:

And he walks with me, and he talks with me,
and he tells me I am his own,
and the joy we share as we tarry there,
none other has ever known.

He speaks and the sound of his voice is so sweet the birds hush their singing, and the melody that he gave to me
within my heart is ringing (refrain)

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

† Closing Hymn Blest Be the Tie That Binds Chalice Hymnal, No. 433
A song of blessing as we say goodbye to Frankie and Sarah.

Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above.

When we are called to part, it gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart, and hope to meet again.

† Benediction

Let us now part, revived, refreshed, and wanting to share compassion with the world.

Let our faces shine with the glory of God,
our bodies carry peace forward,
and our lives a reflection of God's love for all.

Amen

Postlude (Please be seated.).
